

PAIN AWARENESS AWARD, 2012

About the Award

The Canadian Pain Society (CPS), and the Canadian Pain Coalition (CPC) provides this award for the Best Awareness Project for Pain. The goal of the award is to raise awareness about the problem of inadequately treated pain in Canada and to reach a wide Canadian audience. Projects involving the electronic or printed media, visual, fine arts, dance, music or other creative expressions will be considered. Please send (6) copies of your project if you wish to submit an extra piece (DVD, CD, Book). Collaborations among applicants from different backgrounds and disciplines are preferred. This might include projects combining the sciences and the arts or collaborations between persons living with pain and health care providers. The CPS and CPC encourage projects using several forms of expression and group submissions.
